The Decade That Style Forgot

PRION

In the 70s toilets were considered naked without appropriate shag-pile clothing. Preferably in puce.

Nightwear can be interpreted in all sorts of ways. It doesn't usually include a shirt, tie and trousers, but – hey – it's 1973, why not live a little?

It's hard looking natural modelling a woeful pair of Ys and a vest, but the heraldic backdrop is a big help. Especially for the guy holding the bugle.

... On the other hand, this man's cravat, stay-press white slacks and rock-hard demeanour have clearly made him irresistible to women. After hours of cat-fighting, these three have agreed to share.
